

Talking with Doctors

If you communicate using little or no speech, you can now find ways to get your doctor to listen to you...and get paid $250!

Talking with Doctors is a training series that can teach you about tools to use to make your own health decisions. You will even create your personal video to get doctors to listen so they know what is important to you.

8 weekly FREE classes—lectures and discussions (plus optional social events with AAC Community meet-ups)

- Starts October 6, 2020
Tuesdays (time TBA)
- via ZOOM (technical assistance available)

To be eligible to apply, you must:

- Communicate in different ways using little or no speech (devices, gestures, signs, physical movements, pictures, text, etc.)
- Be 18 years or older
- Live in the United States or Territories

Funded by Communication First and brought to you by ACES (Augmentative Communication and Empowerment Supports)—a TechOWL program.

Complete the program series and you'll receive $250!
